There was no youth sailing in the last regatta. He is going to combine the Youth Regatta with the BAYS (Bay Area Youth Sailing) to be able to reach the most junior sailors possible. Larry Mayne, Sequoia Yacht Club will be taking the lead on this.

Vice Commodore Lenora Clark: She reported that she is starting to form PICYA Committee's for next year. She would like to get more Delegates involved in the Committees. She reported that there is a list of committees on the website as well as a book that describes the PICYA guidelines. The book is available in the PICYA store.

Rear Commodore, Liz Allison: She reported that she would like to get help getting “goodies” for the “goodie bags” for Wheelchair Regatta. S/C Peter Nardini donated some books to include in those bags. All donated books will go to the Veterans. They also need personal care items, socks, soaps, brushes, nail clippers etc. Other ways clubs are raising money for the Wheelchair Regatta is taking a percentage off Club dinners as well as having benefit dinner. She also stated that they need things to fill the “skipper bags”, such as gift certificates to club dinners.

Jr. Staff Commodore, Mia Bernt: No report

Past Presidents and Directors of RBOC: Peter Nardini (1985), Dedrick Denison (1993), George Neil 1997, Joan Marsh 2001, Russ Robinson (2003) Doug Hipsley (2005), Lenora Clark (2007), David Breninger 2009, Linda Bendsen (2011). Directors; Doug Hipsley, Walt Vance and Jane Brennan. RBOC takes the position that would help our boating friends. They have received and are reviewing the EIR for the twin tunnels under the Delta, to ensure access to navigable waterways. The deadline for comments is in October. Directors for RBOC hope that delegates carry the message back to their clubs because they need more donations. The eighteen directors are very dedicated, 9 are selected by the PICYA board. They hire a lobbyist to help them get work done in Sacramento. They are only able to retain them through our donations. The board meets in January and March or April depending on Legislative schedule. You need to be a PICYA delegate to be on the RBOC board.

Newsletter Contest, Jack Michael: He sent out a letter regarding the newsletter contest, Sept. 15th is the deadline for the Wilder Award. All info is on PICYA website.

Wheelchair Regatta, Linda Blue: She reported that the Wheelchair Regatta Committee will be meeting next Thursday. She needs volunteers and the forms are available online. Vern Bendsen will be organizing the skippers.
